

prominent, respectable church-going, charity-giving business man who makes money out of her?

Louis Catrina, 18, arrested on complaint of Miss Ella Meyers, 600 Dewey pl., who says he tried to flirt with her in Lincoln Park. $25 and costs.

Rose Lazerowitz, 7, was killed by Dr. Daniel Ackerman's auto on Sept. 19. Victor Lazerowitz, her father, is now suing Ackerman for $10,000.

Richard Brefelt, 1011 W. 18th st., found unconscious in alley at rear of Plymouth ct. and W. Polk st. Broken leg. County hospital. Believed to have been run over while asleep.

Will some one kindly bat politics over the head hard enough to put it to sleep until the world and city series are over?

Harry Brown, alias "Harry Hirsh," arrested on charge of Charles O'Komen, Indian, who says he stole $14 suit of clothes from him. Fined $100 and costs.

Cy De Vry, Lincoln Park animal trainer, has recovered from attack made on him last week by new tiger, Rajah.

Louis Sherman, tailor, 823 N. Paulina st., released on bonds under writ of habeas corpus following his arrest charged with bigamy.

Mrs. Joseph Adams, 3644 Dearborn st., had her husband arrested saying he had made several tries at killing her. He was fined $35 and costs.

Dopesters figure out that Taft will run third. But the dopesters are often wrong. He might run fourth.

Albert Muenchagen, 60, despondent over ill health, hung himself in basement of home of Julius Schlau, 1450 Grace st.

That senate Get-Teddy club in Washington isn't finding the getting as good as it expected.

Edward Shakell, Milwaukee, Wis., robbed of jewelry worth $230 and $25 by negro woman at S. Wabash ave. and 25th st. She escaped.

John Stauch, 365 S. Marshfield ave., crushed to death at plant of Chicago House Wrecking Co., W. 35th and Iron sts. Caught between derrick boom and freight car.

No wonder Harrison and McWeeny are not backing up Wayman in the vice crusade. Some of their friends are liable to get in bad before the crusade is over.

Arthur Bedard, 615 Miller st., stopped Mrs. Mary Horn, 2818 S. Michigan ave., at W. Randolph and N. Peoria sts., and said he was a policeman and said she had to give him her watch. She did and also a diamond ring. He was later arrested and fined $200.

Not having been able to hurt Wilson by fighting him, Hearst is now going to try and put him out of business by supporting him.

Frank Zeszutko, 2, and Albert Dowik, 616 N. Ashland ave., found unconscious in gas filled room. Pulmotor. Revived.

Mrs. Dora Cooney, 5425 S. Western ave.; Clyde L. Chase, 3442 W. 56th pl.; John Albrecht, 6138 S. Loomis st., and Joseph